

PRIVACY POLICY

We are Barreto Veiga Sociedade de Advogados, a law firm registered with the Brazilian National Register of Legal Entities (CNPJ/MF) under No. 26.934.576/0001-10 ("BVA" or the "Firm"). We provide our clients and the general public with relevant information about the legal market through our website, various press and communications channels, and social media platforms (including Instagram, LinkedIn, Facebook, and others). This Privacy Policy ("Policy") describes how we collect, use, store, share, and protect the personal data of individuals who interact with BVA through these channels, in accordance with Law No. 13,709/2018, the Brazilian General Data Protection Law (Lei Geral de Proteção de Dados Pessoais — "LGPD"), and other applicable laws and regulations.

BVA recognizes the importance of privacy and personal data protection and expects you to understand how your personal data is collected, stored, and processed throughout its lifecycle, from collection to deletion, where applicable.

Protecting personal data and the privacy of data subjects is a commitment of BVA. We work to ensure that the rights and freedom of choice of every data subject are respected at all times.

The Firm regularly handles matters involving the protection of personal data and individual privacy.

This Policy does not apply to third-party services, applications, or websites that are not controlled by BVA, even if they are referenced or linked through our channels. Data subjects should review the privacy policy of each relevant third party.

If you do not agree with any of the terms set out in this Policy, you must NOT use our websites.

1. DATA COLLECTED

The personal data listed below is processed solely in the circumstances and for the purposes specified in Section 1.3.

Regardless of the source of the personal data, BVA will process it in strict accordance with this Privacy Policy and applicable law, particularly the LGPD.

Data collected through our website:

PURPOSE OF DATA COLLECTION	PERSONAL DATA COLLECTED	LEGAL BASIS
Newsletter	(i) Data subject's first name and one surname; and (ii) Email address.	Consent
Contact page on our website	(i) Data subject's first name and one surname; (ii) Email address; and (iii) Telephone number.	Consent
Registration through our landing pages	(i) Data subject's first name and one surname; (ii) Email address; and (iii) Telephone number (optional).	Consent

PURPOSE OF DATA COLLECTION	PERSONAL DATA COLLECTED	LEGAL BASIS
Seminars and events	(i) Data subject's name; and (ii) Email address.	Consent

The amount and type of information collected by BVA will vary depending on how each user interacts with our websites and on the needs identified by the user.

All data collected or provided directly by the data subject is treated as confidential. The Firm processes only personal data expressly authorized by users, clients, and other data subjects.

When providing legal services, we may access other personal data that is strictly necessary for the relevant matter, in accordance with the client's instructions and the applicable legal bases.

Personal data processed in connection with the provision of legal services — including data contained in legal proceedings, contracts, legal opinions, and other documents produced or received in the course of our professional activities — is also subject to lawyers' professional secrecy obligations under the Brazilian Bar Association Act (Law No. 8,906/1994) and the Code of Ethics and Discipline of the Brazilian Bar Association (OAB). Such data is also governed by the specific terms agreed in each engagement agreement, which will prevail over this Policy to the extent that they address a matter more specifically.

2. PURPOSES AND LEGAL BASES FOR PROCESSING

In addition to the specific purposes listed in the table in Section 1.3, BVA may process personal data on the following legal bases provided for in Article 7 of the LGPD, depending on the relevant activity: (i) the data subject's consent, for sending newsletters and marketing communications and for registrations for events and landing pages; (ii) taking steps at the data subject's request before entering into a contract, when responding to inquiries submitted through the contact page; (iii) compliance with a legal or regulatory obligation, including anti-money laundering and Know Your Client obligations applicable to law firms; and (iv) BVA's legitimate interests, for information security, fraud prevention, and the improvement of our websites and services, in each case with due regard for the data subjects' fundamental rights and freedoms.

The processing of personal data in connection with the provision of legal services will rely on the legal bases applicable to the specific matter, including compliance with a legal or regulatory obligation, performance of a contract, the regular exercise of rights in judicial, administrative, or arbitration proceedings, and the legitimate interests of BVA or third parties, as applicable.

3. SHARING OF PERSONAL DATA

BVA does not sell personal data. Personal data may, however, be shared in the following circumstances: (i) with service providers engaged by BVA to support its activities, such as hosting providers, information technology infrastructure providers, email marketing tools, and videoconferencing platforms, which act as processors and are contractually required to process personal data solely in accordance with BVA's instructions and the LGPD; (ii) with public, judicial, administrative, or regulatory authorities when required by law, court order, or a request from a competent authority; and (iii) with local counsel, experts, courts, and other third parties when strictly necessary for the regular exercise of rights in proceedings or matters in which BVA acts on behalf of its clients.

4. INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFERS

Where personal data is transferred internationally, including through the use of technology providers based outside Brazil, BVA will adopt the safeguards required under Article 33 of the LGPD, such as specific contractual provisions, standard contractual clauses, or verification that the destination country provides an adequate level of personal data protection. BVA will seek to ensure that data subjects receive a level of protection equivalent to that provided under Brazilian law.

5. DATA RETENTION AND DELETION

BVA will retain personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected. BVA will also observe the retention periods required to comply with legal and regulatory obligations applicable to legal practice, including OAB document-retention rules; to exercise rights in judicial, administrative, or arbitration proceedings; and to protect BVA's rights, particularly the limitation periods established under Brazilian civil law.

At the end of the applicable retention period, personal data will be securely deleted or anonymized, except where its continued retention is permitted or required by law.

6. DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS

Under Article 18 of the LGPD, data subjects may submit a request to BVA to exercise the following rights: (i) confirmation of whether their personal data is being processed; (ii) access to their data; (iii) correction of incomplete, inaccurate, or outdated data; (iv) anonymization, blocking, or deletion of unnecessary or excessive data or data processed in violation of the LGPD; (v) portability of data to another service or product provider, upon express request; (vi) deletion of personal data processed on the basis of consent, subject to the retention circumstances permitted by law; (vii) information about public and private entities with which BVA has shared their data; (viii) information about the option not to provide consent and the consequences of withholding it; and (ix) withdrawal of consent, where consent is the applicable legal basis.

Requests may be submitted through the contact channel specified in Section 13 (Contact Channel) of this Policy and will be answered within the time limits established by the LGPD.

7. INFORMATION SECURITY

BVA adopts appropriate technical and administrative measures to protect personal data against unauthorized access and accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, disclosure, or any other form of improper or unlawful processing.

All BVA employees, partners, and service providers who have access to personal data are subject to confidentiality obligations. If a security incident may create a relevant risk or harm to data subjects, BVA will take the appropriate measures, including, where applicable, notifying the Brazilian National Data Protection Authority (Autoridade Nacional de Proteção de Dados — "ANPD") and the affected data subjects, in accordance with Article 48 of the LGPD.

8. PERSONAL DATA CONTROLLER

8.1. BVA is the controller of your personal data for the purposes of this Policy. Under applicable law, the controller is the person responsible for decisions concerning the processing of personal data.

8.2. BVA has appointed a Data Protection Officer ("DPO") pursuant to Article 41 of the LGPD. The DPO may be contacted through the channel specified in Section 13 (Contact Channel) of this Policy to answer questions and receive communications from data subjects and the ANPD concerning the processing of personal data.

9. COOKIES AND TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES

9.1. Cookies are small information files that generally cannot identify an individual on their own. A website transfers them to the electronic device used to access it in order to collect information and maintain records of browsing and consumption activity, allowing the website to be adapted to the visitor's or user's browsing profile.

9.2. Tags are small pieces of code embedded in website pages that identify browsing activity and the device being used, allowing the website to be displayed in a manner appropriate to the user's means of access.

9.3. When a user accesses our website, cookies are automatically placed to collect non-sensitive personal data required for the proper operation of our platform, to display the website appropriately for the relevant device (for example, a mobile phone or computer), and to help us understand our audience.

9.4. The cookies used by BVA may be classified by purpose as: (i) necessary or essential cookies, which are required for the website to function; (ii) performance and analytics cookies, which help us understand how visitors use the website; (iii) functionality cookies, which allow the website to remember user preferences; and (iv) advertising or targeting cookies, which may be used in institutional communications campaigns. Non-essential cookies will be placed only with the user's consent, provided through the cookie banner displayed on the website.

9.5. Users may manage or disable cookies at any time through their browser settings. Disabling certain cookies may affect the browsing experience and the availability of some website features.

10. CHILDREN'S AND ADOLESCENTS' DATA

BVA's websites and channels are not directed at children or adolescents, and BVA does not intentionally collect personal data from individuals under 18 years of age. If BVA identifies that the personal data of a child or adolescent has been collected without the specific and prominent consent of a parent or legal guardian, the data will be deleted. The data subject or their legal guardian may contact BVA through the channel specified in Section 13.

11. CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

This Policy may be updated periodically to reflect changes in our personal data processing practices or applicable law. The current version will always be available on our website and will state the date on which it was last updated. We recommend that you review this Policy periodically.

12. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

This Policy is governed by the laws of the Federative Republic of Brazil, particularly the LGPD and the Brazilian Civil Rights Framework for the Internet (Law No. 12,965/2014). The Brazilian Consumer Protection Code will apply on a supplementary basis where relevant. The courts of the Judicial District of São Paulo, State of São Paulo, will have exclusive jurisdiction to resolve any dispute arising from this Policy, and the parties waive any other jurisdiction, however privileged it may be.

13. CONTACT CHANNEL

If you have any questions about this Policy or wish to exercise any of the rights described in Section 6, you may contact BVA and/or the DPO at dpo@bvalaw.com.br or through any other contact channel available on our website.

Last updated: October 2026